Please tell us which conservation based groups you have worked for in the past?

Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation- bookkeeping after Joni Miller stepped down, fundraising for numerous banquets, prepping for banquets, setting up banquets, representing Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation at the National Sheep Show in Reno, assisting WY G&F on wildlife fencing projects in the Tom Thorne/Beth Williams Wildlife Management Area, assisting WY G&F in a sheep capture in the Tom Thorne/Beth Williams Wildlife Management Area

Wild Sheep Show: assisted in setting up the merchandise store at the National Sheep Show, assisted in setting up and tearing down the Silent Auction 2022 and 2023

Describe your experience with Fundraising

I have secured numerous donations for the Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation to include donated items, and monetary donations. These funds have helped minimize the cost for the Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation during banquets.

What plans do you have to improve WY-WSF

I plan to work closely with members and the board regarding ideas for betterment of the foundation. Many times, members don't want to speak up. I plan to encourage members to voice their ideas for improvements, projects we could get involved in as a foundation, or concerns. I plan to encourage members to step forward and assist in running sections of the banquets. As the foundation grows bigger, our banquets are requiring more people to volunteer in different areas. Encouraging members to volunteer is going to be needed. I would also like to assist in making board meetings available to the membership and meeting minutes from each meeting available so that the members are apprised of discussions at the board meetings. A board, works for the membership, so the membership should be apprised of what is taking place. This should be done more than twice a year whether it is access to meetings or meeting minutes.

Women and children assisting in conservation is also important. I plan to encourage women and children to get involved, be a part of the outdoors, and educate on importance of conservation management.

What strengths will you bring to WY-WSF?

I bring multiple strengths to the board to include past bookkeeping experience for the Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation, banquet preparation, knowledge of writing minutes, fundraising, presenting Wyoming at the National Sheep Show, and working with multiple members of the Wyoming Wild Sheep Foundation, NBSC, and Wyoming Game and Fish.

Please provide us with a letter of recommendation from an existing WY-WSF member.
